Share your memories at the library, museum

When you're trying to think of a safe place to store your high school memories, think of the Vigo County Public Library and the Historical Museum of the Wabash Valley.

There, your memories will be safe and you can share them with the rest of the Wabash Valley.

The Library is looking for copies of yearbooks from the Vigo County high schools. If you think you might be able to help, call the library at (812) 232-1113 and ask for Special Collections. Somebody there will tell you if your yearbook is one that is needed to round out a collection.

High school memorabilia, such as uniforms, senior cords, photographs, pins, rings and such are being sought by the museum. It can be reached by calling (812) 235-9717.

Revised publication schedule gives each Vigo County school an individual special edition

Honey Creek High School is the fifth in what was to be a series of 12 special sections about the schools — both past and present — that helped and are helping to form Vigo County's heritage.

We say "what was to be a series of 12" because we've revised our publication schedule to give each school its own special edition instead of running articles about several different schools in one section as originally planned.

Why? Because so many of you said your school deserves an edition to itself. It's your school pride and your school spirit that convinced us to extend the series into 1993.

In order to do this, we need your help.

Check the revised schedule below to see when the special edition on your school will run. We'll need people to serve on committees to tell us what makes your school unique; we'll need information about the history, traditions and activities that took place at your school; we'll need photographs depicting the events that made your school days memorable.

A special note about photographs: Original photos are preferred because they reproduce best. Pictures from a newspaper, magazine or yearbook cannot always be reproduced well. If possible, please send photocopies of the photographs you have; we will call you for a copy of the original if we think we can use it.

Also, please do not assume The Tribune-Star has a copy of a particular photo on file.

If you want to serve on a committee, or if you have items you think we might be able to use, write: The Tribune-Star, Remember (Your School's Name), P.O. Box 149, Terre Haute, Ind. 47808.
